Important Message Regarding Your Portfolio Holdings HARD TO VALUE POSITIONS

expect that the fair market value for hard-to value assets reflects the amount you would actually receive in the event of a sale. Positions identified on your statements as "hard-to-value" may show a "fair market value" amount for IRS purposes. Because hard-to-value assets are not readily tradeable, and because there are multiple ways that "value" may be ascertained by issuers and valuation services, and because the value shown is only a point-in-time assessment, you should not MESSAGE REGARDING ROLLED-UP TAX LOTS because there are multiple ways that "value" may be ascertained by issuers and valuation services, and because the value shown is only a point-in-time assessment, you should not expect that the fair market value for hard-to value assets reflects the amount you would actually receive in the event of a sale. Positions identified on your statements as "hard-to-value" may show a "fair market value" amount for IRS purposes. Because hard-to-value assets are not readily tradeable, and MESSAGE REGARDING ROLLED-UP TAX LOTS

Please refer to the Your Account Information Section in your brokerage account statement for your account's existing tax-lot disposition method. The disposition method is the method which you have selected to use in the disposal of each tax lot of the securities held in your account. If you do not select a method, your account will be defaulted to First In, First Out (FIFO). Your account's selected tax lot method will be used to determine the cost basis for calculating gain and / or loss, unless another method was selected at the time of the security disposal, and this may be reported on the IRS Form 1099-B.
